Circle Connections
for Reconciliation

Who We Are

Circle Connections for Reconciliation Society (CCFRS) is an incorporated non-profit organization. Our grass-roots community driven initiative began in 2020 and is organized by a team of dedicated volunteers and supported by the City of Airdrie.

We are honoured to work with Elders, Knowledge Keepers and Leaders from across Treaty 7 Territory and the Métis Nation of Alberta Region 3.

Funding Impact

Bringing Indigenous and non-Indigenous people together in peace and friendship, to build relationships, learn the truth, increase awareness and work towards genuine reconciliation in our area.

Special Events

Supporting our annual signature events: National Indigenous Peoples Day Celebration (June 21) and National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (Sept 30).

Educational Initiatives

We need to hear the truth before genuine reconciliation can happen. Our educational initiatives such as Elder Talks and Land Acknowledgement Workshops are a big step in that direction.

Operational

Providing funds to support the on-going operations of CCFRS, allowing us to continue our Mission, Vision, Values and Guiding Principles in advancing the truth and reconciliation.

Sponsorship Opportunities

We rely on the generosity of funders, partners and sponsors to complete our vision of contributing to the progress of Truth and Reconciliation in peace, respect and friendship in Airdrie and area.

Levels of Support

- Champion – $10,000
- Partner – $7,500
